Approved For Release 1999/09/07 : CIA-RDP7

THE ARCHIE ROOSEVELTS are now in New York on home leave from their post in Madrid. They will come to Washington on the 10th and remain until the 30th before returning to Spain. While here they will stay with the Kermit Roosevelts, and will be feted high, wide and handsome. . . . Both, 'tis reported, have a Spanish look. Lucky is wearing her hair swept back into a low chignon; Archie has acquired a mustache. 'Tis not reported, however, whether he has also acquired the Spanish custom of first tickling with the mustache when kissing a lady on the cheek.
